

Research Assistant Opportunity

The UCLA School Diversity Project is looking for undergraduate research assistants for Fall 2016!

Purpose of the project:

To understand the social and academic benefits for students who attend middle schools and high schools that are racially and ethnically diverse.

We are looking for a team of diverse, undergraduate students who can commit to 8 hours per week during the fall.

You will have the opportunity to:

- ✓ Gain valuable experience in our research lab to build your resume
- ✓ Acquire research and leadership skills
- ✓ Attend professional development workshops about resumes and graduate school
- ✓ Course credit available (4 units)

For more info, please visit our website:
www.uclaschooldiversityproject.com

If you would like to be a Research Assistant for this project, please contact our Project Manager for more information and to schedule a brief interview:

Riya Didwania
riya.hsdp@gmail.com